Matrimonial.

Miss Maud Lowry, of Winchester, and R. B. Tuttle, of Perry, Ga., were married in Lexington Wednesday.

Mr. Jacob Mulberry celebrated his 77th birthday with a fine dinner, and presented each of his children with a check for $50.

At Winchester, City Attorney Lewis Hamilton Bush, and Miss Susan Miller, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wash Miller, were married Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kennedy, of Covington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jessie Grandy, to Mr. Edmund Tutt Burnman, of Richmond, Ky.

William Rutledge and Lula Covington and George Tingle and Letha Covington, two Scott county couples, were married in Lexington Saturday. The brides are sisters.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. E. F. Paxton, widow of the late Dr. W. B. Paxton, died at the home of her son, Mr. Claude Paxton, at Mt. Sterling, Ky., on Wednesday morning, at 9:30 o'clock. The remains will be buried in the Paris cemetery on this (Friday) morning. The funeral services will take place from the Second Presbyterian Church, this morning at 10 o'clock, services by Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford. The pall-bearers will be: George W. Judy, John J. McClintock, Jos. A. Wilson, George R. Bell, James McClure and A. T. Forsyth.

J. Grimes Nichols, aged 19, son of Mrs. S. E. Nichols, died near Jackson, on last Saturday, of typhoid fever.

James Paton died at Little Rock, last Monday, and was buried at Elizabeth, on Tuesday.

Shortly before his death, Mr. John Layton, of Scott county, requested the family to hurry up with the breakfast, as they would have to lay him out in a few minutes, and he died soon after.

Mrs. Julia A. Lemon, aged 69, died suddenly at her home in Georgetown, on Saturday morning, of neuralgia of the heart.

Mrs. Mary Beale, wife of Dr. A. J. Beale, of Cynthiana, died Sunday morning, after a brief illness of pneumonia, aged 72 years. She was a Miss Tucker, of Bourbon county, and had twice been married.

Dr. Hervey McDowell one of the best known and best loved physicians in Central Kentucky, died at Cynthiana, Wednesday, after a long and painful illness. Dr. McDowell belongs to the family of that name so distinguished in early history of Kentucky, and added luster to the reputation of a race of men rarely equalled for their noble qualities. He was a Confederate soldier, first as a Captain of Company F, of the Second Regiment of Kentucky Volunteer Infantry, and at the close of the war was Lieutenant Colonel of that regiment. To the surviving members of the regiment, and of the First Kentucky Brigade—now known as the Orphan Brigade—the death of this gallant officer and comrade brings heart-felt sorrow. As citizen, soldier and physician, his career has been stainless and pure. Dr. McDowell was an elder in the Presbyterian Church, and had long been the character of a consistent Christian. He leaves a wife and five sons. His funeral took place Thursday at Cynthiana, where he has long lived, and where he will be sincerely mourned by the people of that city and of Harrison county. Capt. E. F. Spears of this city, was one of the pall-bearers.

The above named Company, composed of business men of Paris, has recently been incorporated, and for the purpose of developing their oil and mineral leases, offer for sale a limited number of shares of stock.

The Company's holdings consist of leases on nearly 7,000 acres of land, nearly all of which are located in Barren and Allen Counties, Kentucky. Their lands have been carefully selected, some of which adjoin lands on which are Oil wells that have produced for years a very fine grade of oil. Their leases were secured before the present rush and excitement began in those Counties, and are choice lands, and valuable.

Lands, adjacent to Company's, secured recently by Eastern capitalists at large price, are now being developed as fast as machinery can be put on grounds.

Those desiring stock can obtain same by applying to Secretary or any officers of the Company. 20ct
